WORK EXPERIENCE

Nov2007-2009	Designer & Assistant to Managing Director MCCM Creations MCCM Creations is a Hong Kong based publishing house, specialising in books on art, design and visual culture. During my time at the company I was the sole designer. I worked closely with the company manager/founder, taking projects from conception to publication. In addition to my design duties I was called upon to handle administrative work such as budget planning, material sourcing, the organisation of book launch events, talks, communication with authors and contract designers. I took notes in meetings and made sure that agreed actions were followed up.
Jan2006-2007	Teaching assistant School of design, Hong Kong Polytechnic University Assisting the Professor in our Department (School of Design). My duties were helping him to keep his teaching materials well organised and I also assisted on cultural research materials for teaching purposes.
Sep2006-now	Freelance illustrator Drawing is my primary creative outlet. I have pursued my love for illustration outside of office hours. My works have been published in several local cultural magazines.
